

NIH New Employee Orientation Directions to Building 45 (Natcher)

*Discover a career at NIH:
It's about life*

NIH New Employee Website

www.hr.od.nih.gov/workingatnih/newemployee

National Institutes of Health
Office of Human Resources

Directions to the Natcher Building (Building 45)	3
Walking to Natcher/Building 45	3
Taking the NIH Shuttle to Natcher/Building 45	5

Directions to the Natcher Building (Building 45)

Walking to Natcher/Building 45

After receiving your visitor's badge, walk past the security counter, and look for a sign pointing you left toward the Natcher Building. You can take the elevator or the staircase. The walk to Natcher should take roughly 5 minutes.

After exiting Gateway Center, follow signs to the Natcher Building. You can see the building after exiting Gateway Center.

Follow signs to the Natcher Building

Taking the NIH Shuttle to Natcher/Building 45

The NIH Shuttle is free of charge and runs daily, both on and around campus. After receiving your visitor's badge, exit Gateway Center down a long hallway, following the sign above saying "To Shuttle Bus" (see picture below). You will exit the building and approach the outdoor bus stops.

Follow the sign to the Shuttle Bus

You have two shuttle options to get to Natcher/Building 45:

Montrose (Yellow Line)- This bus will have a yellow sign labeled "Montrose" on the side near the door. The last Montrose shuttle leaving from this bus stop (called "Metro Inside" on the schedule) and arriving at Building 45 in time for Orientation is the 7:40 AM shuttle, which will arrive at Building 45 around 7:49 AM. You could arrive earlier by catching the 7:00 AM or 7:20 AM ride.

Campus Route (Red Line)- This bus will have a red sign labeled "Campus Route" on the side near the door. The last Campus shuttle leaving from Gateway Center (called "Metro Depart" on the schedule) and arriving at Building 45 in time for Orientation is the 7:28 AM shuttle, which will arrive at Building 45 around 7:50 AM. You could arrive earlier by catching the 6:54 AM, 7:04 AM, or 7:18 AM ride. Follow the sign to the Shuttle Bus